Denise Cox, LVN

Life Care Manager

Denise Cox joined LivHOME in 2009. She has over 22 years of experience working with the geriatric community and has experience with Alzheimer's, stroke, Parkinson's, and hospice patients.

Denise has a passion for enhancing the quality of life of her clients, always being an avid advocate to ensure that each and every client is getting the very best care. She has worked with hundreds of clients, and with this experience she is able to provide her clients valuable insights that lead to the best possible outcomes.

Denise's firsthand experience in direct patient care combined with her nursing background provides her with the unique qualifications to effectively assist those senior adults and their family members facing eldercare challenges.

Denise received her nursing license from the California Nurses Educational Institute in 2010, where she graduated with honors. She is a member of the the following organizations: Networking for Seniors, Inland Association for Continuity of Care (IACC), Aging Life Care Association, MS Society, and the Alzheimer's Association.

Denise can be reached at (800) 690-9602 or by email at dcox@livhome.com.
