Kathy Capobianco, LVN

Life Care Manager

Kathy Capobianco joined Age Concerns, now LivHOME, in 1991 as a Care Manager, bringing her experience and unique perspective as a nurse and a former private-duty caregiver.

Kathy worked as a nurse for several years in hospitals including Columbia Presbyterian in New York City and for private physicians, but found herself frustrated by the field of medicine's narrow focus on disease.

Kathy was more interested in addressing her patients' overall quality of life rather than simply providing care which focused on their medical issues. She started her own private elder caregiving business, which she ran for many years. She earned her vocational nursing license (LVN) in geriatric nursing at New York University's School of Nursing.

Her skills, knowledge of the needs of her elderly clients, professionalism, and empathy caught the eye of the Director, who trained her as an Eldercare Manager. Since 1992, Kathy has enjoyed managing the care of her clients, enabling them to remain safe and comfortable in their own homes.

Kathy can be reached at (619) 544-1622 or by email at kcapobianco@livhome.com.
