Care Consultant

Ruthie Rosenberg joined LivHOME as a Care Consultant in 2008, bringing with her 22 years of social work experience in hospital and home settings. Ruthie speaks with callers inquiring about LivHOME services as well as reaches out to professionals throughout Los Angeles County. In this role, Ruthie is a problem-solver and resource for all eldercare needs.

Previously, Ruthie was employed as a social worker at Encino Hospital Medical Center and at Jewish Family Services. Her focus was on the complicated issues of acute rehabilitation, with expertise in assisting clients, families, and concerned professionals when confronting difficult transitions.

This experience enhanced Ruthie's ability to empathize with the needs of clients and their families. Her extensive knowledge of resources enables Ruthie to expertly meet the needs of clients as well as to partner with professionals in the community. Ruthie speaks publicly, individually, and on panels, educating others about various aspects concerning aging.

Ruthie received her master's in social work from Wurzweiler School of Social Work, with a concentration on individual counseling. She received her bachelor's in sociology from Stern College. She is credentialed as a care manager, certified (CMC) by the National Academy of Certified Care Managers.

As an active member of her community, Ruthie volunteers with numerous community organizations, sharing her skills in event planning and fundraising. Ruthie is active with the American Board of Home Care (ABHC), whose mission is to promote legal and ethical business in the home care industry, thereby improving both industry standards and consumer confidence. The focus is on the education of professionals, consumers, and families, and now, with the tumultuous legal changes in health care, is also focusing on the education of home care companies and legislative actions. Ruthie serves on the Membership Committee, reviewing new member applications to the ABHC.
