Shawna Rodriguez, LCM

Life Care Manager

Shawna Rodriguez joined LivHOME in 2016 as a Life Care Manager.

Shawna graduated from Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, Mich., with a BS degree in individual and family relationships. She moved to California in the mid '90s.

With over 20 years of experience, Shawna began as a caregiver in an assisted living community in Kalamazoo, Mich. She has caregiving, marketing, and administrative experience working in assisted living communities, skilled nursing facilities, adult day care, home care, and hospice.

Shawna's passion is working with individuals affected by Alzheimer's disease and other memory impairments as well as with their families. She was previously an administrator of an assisted living facility specializing in dementia care and is knowledgeable about residential care for the elderly Title 22 regulations.

Shawna is enjoying her work in the field, focusing on advocating for and enriching the lives of her senior clients.

Shawna can be reached at (650) 967-3326 or by email at srodriguez@livhome.com.
