Freda Jaffe, BA, CMC
Life Care Manager

Freda joined LivHOME in 2006 as a Care Manager Associate and was promoted to Life Care Manager in 2007.

Freda previously managed a home health care agency in Morristown, New Jersey. In this position, she was responsible for maintaining compliance with state licensure and national accreditation. Her previous work included care management and staffing coordination.

Her interests and experience extend to animal therapy. She was instrumental in establishing an animal visitation program to homebound seniors. Freda worked at the Seeing Eye Foundation, helping seniors adapt to their new Seeing Eye® dogs, and is an active member of the American Veterinarian Medical Association, Women's Auxiliary.

Freda earned a bachelor of arts degree in English from Temple University in Pennsylvania. Freda is credentialed as a Care Manager, Certified (CMC) by the National Academy of Certified Care Managers.

Freda can be reached at (323) 933-5880 or by email at fjaffe@livhome.com.
