Jessica Sanders, MS
Life Care Manager

Jessica Sanders joined LivHOME in 2019 as a Life Care Manager. She has over ten years of experience working in skilled nursing, assisted living, and pharmacy.

Previously, Jessica was the Director of Memory Programs at an assisted living facility specializing in dementia care and high quality memory impairment activities. She has a passion for working with seniors and assisting in providing them the best quality of care.

Jessica graduated from North Carolina State University with a BA degree in Africana Studies and then continued her studies at North Carolina Agriculture and technical State University, graduating with a BS degree in Biology. She then moved to California in 2014 and continued her education with obtaining a MS degree in Healthcare Management from California State University at Los Angeles. Jessica is still pursuing her education and continuing her studies. She is currently attending Walden University and working towards a PhD in Health Services with a concentration in Healthcare Administration.

Jessica is active in a number of professional organizations, including:

- Academy of Management (AoM), member
- National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), member
- American Public Health Association (APHA), member

Jessica has a passion for working with seniors and bringing happiness to their lives. One of her goals in life is to ensure great memories are continued throughout the life of others.

Jessica can be reached at (650) 967-3326 or by email at jsanders@livhome.com.
